

armed with ideas

marxism
marxism
2000

The anti capitalist conference
Trinity College Dublin
November 17 - 19

Organised by the Socialist Worker CONTACT: swp@clubi.ie, 01 8722682 or 086 3074060 or (N.I.) 07855 006964 P.O. BOX 1648, DUBLIN 8.

Marxism 2000—The anti capitalist conference

From Seattle to Prague a new global movement has emerged to challenge the power of money.

Millions of people want real democracy where everyone has a say in the running of our workplaces and colleges rather than the fake democracy we get under capitalism.

They want to end the rule of the multinationals that turn everything into a brand name. Marxism 2000 is an annual conference organised by the Socialist Workers Party.

It is devoted to the theory and practice of the anti-capitalist movement.

Speakers at the event include:

★KEVIN DANAHER from Global Exchange in San Francisco is a prominent speaker and organiser of the movement in the US.

★CHRIS HARMAN editor of the British Socialist Worker.

★EAMONN McCANN, Hot Press journalist and long time socialist activist.

★TERRY EAGLETON, Professor of English at Oxford University.

★KIERAN ALLEN, author of the forthcoming The Celtic Tiger: The Myth of Social Partnership.

★GORETTI HORGAN, a socialist from Derry, speaks on: What's changed for women in Ireland?

Marxism conferences encourage a spirit of open and free debate.

It positively discourages nitpicking and jargon.

It is the place where you get ideas that can help challenge a system based on profit and greed.

Friday
6.00pm-7.15pm	Is overconsumption destroying the planet? Owen McCormack	The rise and fall of state capitalism Dave Lorden	Freud Peadar O'Grady
7.15pm-8.30pm	How do we beat Third World debt? Rory Herne and speaker from Ivory Coast	Drugs: How criminalisation has failed Mary Smith	Imperialism and the arms trade Barbara Muldoon
8.30pm	GLOBALISATION AND ANTI-CAPITALISM Speakers: Kevin Danaher (Author of Globalise This and leading anti-capitalist activist from USA) Chris Harman (Editor of British Socialist Worker) Catherine Kennedy (Eye witness from Prague)
Saturday
10.00am-11.15am	Asylum seekers, immigration and the Celtic Tiger Steve Loyal and Melisa Halpin (Anti Nazi League)	Is thought a prisoner of words? The Marxist theory of language Marnie Holborow	Hollywood's dream factory Simon Basketter
11.45am-1.00pm	Direct action and protest Kieran Allen	Yeats and Irish society Terry Eagleton	Forum on education John Price (Campaign Against Selection); Crea Ryder (INTO candidate for General Secretary)
2.30pm-3.15pm	The US boom: Has new technology solved the boom/slump cycle? Chris Harman	The War of Independence: Ireland's unfinished revolution Conor Kostick	The real Jesus Kevin Wingfield
3.45pm-5.00pm	Leninism in the 21 st Century Chris Bambery	GM foods: Why we should stop them now? Kevin Danaher	Do Western workers benefit from the oppression of the developing world? Willie Cumming
7.00pm-9.00pm	Republicanism from armed struggle to conventional politics Eamonn McCann	As a new left emerges in America: Could the US go socialist? Brian Kelly	Could there be a planned economy? Chris Harman
Sunday
10.00am-11.15am	Rank and file trade unionism and the fight against Social Partnership Owen McCormack (Busworkers Action Group); Jimmy Kelly (ATGWU)	Karl Marx: Life of a revolutionary Kieran Allen	Fianna Fail and workers: Can their electoral base be broken? Deirdre Cronin
11.45am-1.00pm	Anarchism: Does it offer an alternative to Marxism? Richard Boyd Barrett	Cuba and US imperialism Aoife ni Fhearghail	Chomsky and the media Sinead Kennedy
2.00pm - 3.15pm	What's changed for women in Ireland? Goretti Horgan	Trotsky Brid Smith	Gandhi and non-violence Mark Walshe
3.15pm-4.30pm	Loyalism in crisis Colm Bryce	Haider and the fight against Eurofascism Grace Lally	The politics of the SWP
4.30pm	FINAL RALLY

HIGHLIGHTS:

Republicanism: From armed struggle to conventional politics, Eamonn McCann Sunday 11.45am

Direct action and protest, Kieran Allen, Saturday 11.45am

Trotsky, Brid Smith, Sunday 2.00pm

Chomsky and the media, Sinead Kennedy, Sunday 11.45pm

Marxism 2000

The anti-capitalist conference

Marxism 2000 takes place in Trinity College in central Dublin from Friday 17th to Sunday 19th November.

TICKET COST

The cost of a ticket for the weekend is £12 (£6 unwaged). But if you buy your ticket now you can avail of reduced price of £10 (£5 unwaged). Send off the booking form below to secure your ticket.

ACCOMMODATION

Accommodation is available free for those from out of Dublin.

This will usually be on the floor of Dublin SWP members so be sure to bring a sleeping bag and book accommodation early.

CRECHE

A limited creche will be provided away from the main venue. The deadline for booking places in the creche is November 5th.

BOOKMARKS BOOK SERVICE

Bookmarks, Ireland's premiere radical book service, will organise a big selection of books and pamphlets. Topics include anti-capitalism, socialism, environmentalism and trade unionism as well as a wide range on history, political theory and marxist classics.

Registration form

(PLEASE PRINT IN BLOCK CAPITALS)

Name Male ☐ Female ☐

Address

.....

Telephone Mobile

Email Union

I require accommodation YES ☐ NO ☐

If you need the creche please state number of children in each age group

Up to 18 months _____ 18 months to 5 years _____ 5 years and older _____

I want _____ tickets @ £10 and _____ @ £5 (unwaged) and enclose £ _____

Make cheques/POs payable to Marxism 2000

Return to Marxism 2000, PO Box 1648 Dublin 8